

Figure 21. The Kaiser Slough Unit of the Sacramento River National Wildlife Refuge is located directly across the river from the Singh parcel and California State Parks' "Peterson Addition" and "Washout" natural areas. Restoration of the Singh parcel and other adjoining properties would create a significant extent of contiguous riparian habitat.