

Figure 4-6. Koehnman site map with velocity and depth profiles for the five transects along the point bar. Each dot along the graph designates a sampling point. Depth and velocity measurements were typically taken every 0.5 m with some exception at longer transects. SC8 designates a cove habitat sampling location, Secondary Channel refers to secondary channel sampling location, and Main Channel refers to main channel sampling location.